"Hell there are no rules here—
we're trying to accomplish something"

The Library
wishes you all
a Merry Christmas!

Cookie & Candy Day

The students, parents and teachers of Ms. Heit's multi-age class had a Candy and Cookie Day for the December Human Kindness activity

Soldiers and students worked together making a variety of candies and cookies to give to Soldiers on post.

The class is known as "The Giraffes" because they stick their necks out for others.
